DEWEY ROUNDUP TO LAST OVER SUNDAY

RAIN INTERRUPTS PROGRAM YESTERDAY; TWO MORE DAYS.

SPECIALS OUT OF TULSA

Thirty Thousand People Looked for Today; Immense Crowds Tomorrow.

DEWEY, Okla., July 3.—(Special) —For the first time in seven years the annual roundup program was interrupted by rain today. As a result, today's program will be staged tomorrow and the show will run over Sunday. This is the announcement tonight after a special meeting of directors. Telegrams are being sent to all parts of the southwest, giving notification of the extension and the Sunday events are expected to nearly equal the attendance tomorrow, when fully 30,000 visitors will gather at the immense arena and witness the day's sports.

The Town Is Filled.
DeWey is already full of visitors. The railroad yards and expressmen did an enormous business today. The rain lasted only for a short time but it came just in time to attract the crowds going out to the arena and rather than inconvenience anyone, arena director Joe Hartley announced a postponement of the other. The sides cleared up again quickly and the stars are shining brightly tonight. A hundred men at work in the big road leading from the business center to the arena and in the morning it will be as smooth as could be desired in the city. The arena is located on a level stretch of land, completely covered by green grass and although it would not make it muddy.

The program Saturday and Sunday will be altered "rain or shine." Notice will be placed on all of Tulsa's billboards of an early start can prevent them.

Expect 30,000 Today.

Great crowds will begin to pour into DeWey early tomorrow morning. Last year 25,000 people passed through the arena on July Fourth and this year, with a bigger show in store, expect it will be 26,000. Each visitor is looked for and premiums made accordingly.

DeWey is expected to send 2,000 fans to the roundup Saturday. The Sun, we will run a special train out of Tulsa in the morning. It will leave fifteen minutes behind the regular train, which pulls out of Tulsa at 8 o'clock each morning. Those who care to return in the evening of 7 o'clock and not miss an event on the program.

Baseball Games.

The DeWey and Bartlesville baseball clubs will play tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the baseball park adjoining the arena. The arena events will start at 3 o'clock promptly. There are more cowboys and cattle entered this year than ever before. The best ropers and riders in the world are here. The wild horse races are proving an exciting added feature, while the auto polo games, which are staged in the big arena each afternoon, are the personification of thrills.

Many of the persons who see the roundup tomorrow will remain over for the Sunday show, when the three-day average winners in the various events. The $2,500 in gold that is being offered to the winners will be awarded at the arena Sunday afternoon. The weather pranks that make possible the Sunday entertainment for the first time since the roundup was inaugurated will prove a blessing to thousands of people, who could not get away on any other day of the week.

Three Brass Bands.

Three brass bands are here to furnish music for the celebration. The bands are fully decorated and there are no less than a hundred shows and concessions scattered about the town and all the way out to the arena. A half hundred automobile parties from distant points came in today, prepared to stay until the finish. At least two hundred autos will be parked outside the arena when the program starts tomorrow afternoon.
